

✿ You're Invited to a Book Release Party ✿
Where the Great River Bends
A natural and human history of the Columbia at Wallula

✿ Saturday, November 22 ✿
from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m.
Young Ballroom ✿ Reid Campus Center at Whitman College

A remarkable place where geography has defined history, Wallula Gap is that narrowing of the mighty Columbia River halfway between the Rocky Mountains and the Pacific Ocean.

Get your copy autographed and enjoy live entertainment, complimentary hors d'oeuvres and Reininger Winery wine tasting!

Join us for an historic event at Whitman College, the book release party for Where the Great River Bends – a gala event featuring live music provided by Vintage, refreshments and hors d'oeuvres, and a complimentary wine tasting sponsored by Reininger Winery!

Whitman College invites you to celebrate the publication of this much-anticipated book, edited by Professor of Geology and Environmental Studies Robert J. Carson and written in conjunction with four colleagues. This beautiful book captivates a remarkable landscape with more than 200 full-color photographs contributed by seven photographers. Get your copy of Where the Great River Bends on the first day it's available for sale and have it signed by those who contributed to this beautiful natural and human history of the Columbia at Wallula!

Many thanks to contributors Robert Baker, John Clement, Paul Clement, Michael E. Denny, Catherine E. Dickson, Lawrence L. Dodd, G. Thomas Edwards, Kathbryn Farrell Guizar, Dianne Kornberg and Donald Snow

Event sponsored by Whitman College, Kooke Books, Reininger Winery and the bookstore at Whitman Mission National Historic Site
